New York, August 17: Keno Auctions is pleased to announce its upcoming sale of Important Paintings, Furniture, Decorative Arts and Jewelry on Saturday, September 24, 2011, at the Marriott Hotel (243 Tresser Boulevard) in Stamford, Connecticut, at 10:00 A.M. A total of 350 lots will be offered, featuring works drawn from a cross-section of styles and genres, from the 17th to 20th centuries, including a selection of antique and contemporary jewelry—a first for the auction house.

A sweeping array of fresh-to-the-market items will be offered, representing a variety of periods and styles, including eighteen important Maritime paintings from a prominent Connecticut collector, and 18th- and 20th-century American, European and Old Master landscapes and still-life paintings. The sale also highlights works of American Furniture and Folk Art, Native American Art, Tribal Art, Tiffany Studios and 20th-century decorative arts, including an important collection of 40 works from the Estate of Hans Christensen, who was the head of Georg Jensen's prototype department and handmade many of the company's important designs.

"I am thrilled to kick off the fall season with this wonderful sale; one that has an extraordinary range of property and exceptional quality," said Leigh Keno, who founded the full-service auction house in 2009. "Buyers can expect to find something for every collecting taste and price level. We are delighted to present our first sale of antique and contemporary jewelry, from such outstanding makers as Cartier, Seaman Schepps and David Webb. Our pre-sale auction estimates are extremely low which offers the buyer extraordinary opportunities."

The sale's highlights include:

John George Brown (American, 1831-1913), A GOOD DAY'S WORK signed lower left and inscribed "Copyright / JG BROWN N.A." oil on canvas 24 x 17 inches. This painting is from the collection of George E. Missbach of Atlanta, who donated two other Browns to Atlanta's High Museum of Art in 1974. (Estimate: $30,000-50,000).

George Inness (American, 1825-1894), PASTORAL LANDSCAPE, circa 1865-67, oil on canvas, signed indistinctly lower right "George Inness", 9 3/4 x 13 3/4 inches, (Estimate: $20,000-40,000).

James Buttersworth (American, 1817-1894), THE ACTIVE OFF CASTLE GARDEN WITH THE BATTERY IN THE DISTANCE and THE ACTIVE OFF SANDY HOOK a pair of oil on panel paintings, one signed lower right "Buttersworth". Each in its original frame, 8 x 12 inches. (Estimate: $60,000-90,000).

Ralph Eugene Cahoon, Jr. (American, 1910-1982), PICNIC WITH MERMAIDS AND SAILORS EATING LOBSTER signed lower right "R. CAHOON / PINXT", oil on masonite, 19 x 27 inches (Estimate: $12,000-18,000).

Robert Salmon (British/American, 1775-1858), LUGGER ON A WIND signed and dated lower right "R SALMON 1833", oil on cradled panel, 16 1/2 x 24 inches. This painting is an excellent example of work from the celebrated artist's American period. Salmon combined the English tradition of harbor and coastal views in marine painting, which was established by Canaletto and Samuel Scott, with the legacy of Dutch marine painting, known for its low horizons and expansive lighting effects. (Estimate: $40,000-60,000).

Joseph Decker (American, 1853-1924), STRAWBERRIES IN A BASKET signed with initials lower left "J D" and signed again with initials and inscribed verso "J.D. 16 Pilling St. Br," oil on canvas, 9 by 14 inches. Decker lived in Brooklyn and was considered one of the finest and most individual painters of still life in the last two decades of the century in the United States. His 1880s astonishingly accurate depictions of fruit, nuts, and candies amazed critics. (Estimate: $20,000-40,000).
